Our 1980 Estate Bottled Chardonnay is unique among wines made from this varietal grape. Unlike most other relatively expensive Chardonnays, this one has not been aged in oak.

The aroma and the flavors show a good depth and richness, even without the complexity of oak influence. This is possible for us to achieve primarily because our Chardonnay vines are planted on the vinifera root system, a practice highly unusual for French and California Chardonnay vineyards.

This wine is made entirely from Chardonnay grapes grown at the Callaway Vineyard and from one neighboring vineyard. Both of these are located less than seven miles due east of the village of Temecula/Rancho California in the south coastal mountains, 23 miles from the Pacific Ocean.

Please visit us and study our ways. Here you can see for yourself that from vine to customer, Callaway wines are among the most carefully nurtured wines in the world.
